

TREND REPORT:

The state of human resources and corporate America

A recent survey of 1,000 human resources (HR) professionals revealed

CORPORATE AMERICA'S TOP FRUSTRATIONS IN 2024:

feeling underpaid

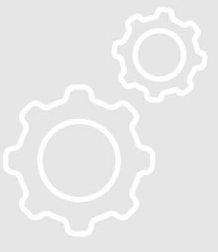

lack of appreciation

poor work-life balance

THE ISSUES THAT GET BROUGHT TO HR ARE MOST OFTEN DUE TO:

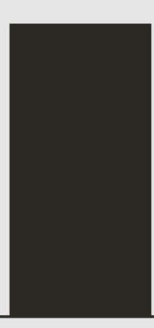

44%

Poor communication

40%

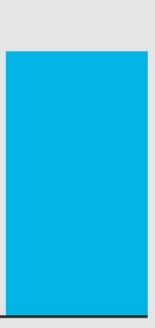

Failure to follow rules

38%

Toxic negativity

37%

Gossip

With so many responsibilities, just

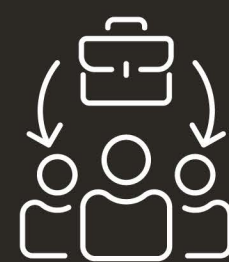

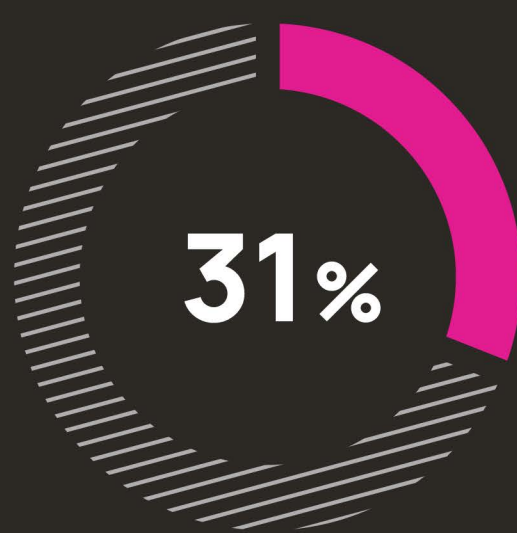

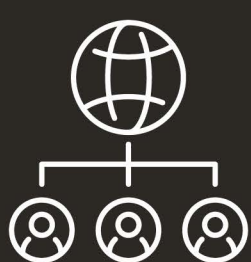

9% of HR professionals

manage to complete their daily to-do lists, forcing 42% to take their work home

To keep up, HR professionals said they'd need to outsource of their current workload, on average

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE (AI) CAN HELP

81% of HR professionals who use AI

in their roles reported increased capacity for interpersonal connections

Of the HR professionals surveyed:

24% are burnt out

30% feel mentally drained

34% are considering a career change

